for excellence in handmade glass artistry.

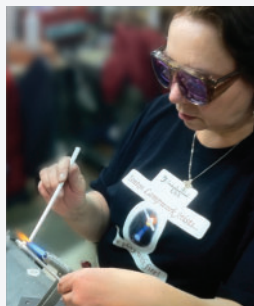

Not just another bead line!

- Handmade in Williamstown, West Virginia... features sterling silver core bearing Fenton USA logo.
- Handpainted beads and earrings...initialed by the artist!
- Unmatched brilliance, color, quality and styles.
- Careful inspection of each piece...a 108 year tradition!
- Durability – each design tested in a tumbler for three hours.
- Dedicated craftsmanship and intricate detail!
- Trendsetting – Innovative glass treatments and designs including unique, large focal beads.
- Fenton Frequent Bead Buyer Program, too!

"I love my Fenton beads and earrings, not only for their vibrant, beautiful color and delicate artwork but also for their versatility and durability! It is important to me to support "Made in America" products, and I wear them with pride."

Donna O. • E. Aurora, NY

Jena Blair designs Fenton glass beads using remarkable, creative techniques. She took a beadmaking class eight years ago and has been spinning beads nonstop ever since. Jena's "can do" attitude inspired us to form Fenton USA Beads. From Vasa Murrhina to Precious Metals... Carnival to Three Dimensional, Jena's creativity sparkles!

OB355
Storm
Gathering clouds, prelude to a summer shower.
designed by Terry Henry

OB350
Twilight
Midnight
moonbeams.
designed by Terry Henry

Terry Henry's designs use metal infused glass to create three completely different effects. "Twilight" features silver infused glass that is cut and then cased in a thick robe of clear glass. "Paisley" is created by first forming our own millifiore (flower) with chalcedony, another silver based glass and black. A special fire forms a deep clear pool of multi-colored paisley floating within the bead. "Storm" requires a third type of heating, cooling and reheating of silver-based glass to make clouds within the bead.

Mosaic

What begins as 3D art painted with molten glass, is gently rolled into a smooth surface.
The embedded glass forms a mosaic pattern.
